This leaflet contains a full description of the assistance services available, both insured and uninsured, provided the Policy remains in force.

Before you travel, you can find hints & tips to stay safe and healthy while abroad from the Foreign & Commonwealth Office. For more details Log-on to www.fco.gov.uk/en/travel-and-living-abroad/staying-safe/checklist

For Medical Assistance during an 'Insured Journey' contact Healix as shown above; if you have already received emergency treatment, contact Healix at the earliest opportunity and provide the following information:

- Insured and policy numbers detailed on the card
- Your personal details and where you are receiving treatment
- The nature of your medical problem

Healix will provide advice and all necessary assistance.

Many medical facilities will contact Healix on your behalf, but not all will do so.

If Healix is not contacted, you may be presented with a bill for treatment provided.

Please note, however, that if you suffer a minor illness or injury, and do not require advice or Assistance from Healix, you may make your own arrangements and submit a claim at the end of your "Insured Journey".

For Security Assistance during an 'Insured Journey' where you are involved in a life threatening situation, hi-jacked, kidnapped, illegally detained or need to be evacuated from a country in an emergency, if possible: Call the emergency number detailed on the card and ask for security assistance.

- Please quote the Insured and Policy Numbers above

- Provide the following information:
  1. Your personal details & employer
  2. Your contact details
  3. Your location
  4. A brief synopsis of the initial incident and what is happening around you
  5. Your call will be handled by a security expert who will immediately assess your situation and initiate an action plan to provide you with as much assistance as possible.
- Remain CALM; ASSESS the situation and IDENTIFY any remaining threat and if safe to do so, remain where you are.

WORLDWIDE MEDICAL & SECURITY ASSISTANCE

As well as medical and security assistance, the following services are also available: During the 'Insured Journey' the Healix Travellers' Helpline can provide:
